ISHIRALABS- “A HEALTHIER LIFESTYLE COMPANY”

In
Collaboration
With

We are a consumer products company envisioning a healthier lifestyle for our consumers at every stage and age of their lives. We would create and market products that will make our users healthier and closer to the nature.

In our day-to-day experiences, we feel that a certain scent, food, or an item of clothing makes it easier for us to associate ourselves with the people we “want” to be, rather than the people we currently are. And we want our consumers associate our products with a healthier lifestyle.

“Ishira labs” will allow you to encompass your ideal version of “healthier” you. The brand will give you a sense of belonging to a healthier community you admire and appreciate.

ABOUT - “WHAT WE STAND FOR”?

In
Collaboration

Vision:

We want our consumers to visualise their healthier versions at every stage and age of life.

Mission:

Living a healthier lifestyle.

Our basic task is to enable people to visualise a healthier path to their lives. And we achieve this through our rich range of products and services – with personal care & health products, medical disposables, and with our health-advisory products.

Values:

Partnership and trust

We create a good ecosystem of relationships. We strive for trust with our partners: our customers, our suppliers, our owners and everyone else who surrounds us. Only good and open relationships can help us achieve our primary mission.

Speed and flexibility

We want to be discovering the markets' new needs. We can do this by successfully shortening the development process, and harmonised production and distribution. With our responsiveness and the ability to adapt we will overcome the obstacles

Creativity and efficiency

The only real way to achieve first-class results is by creating an atmosphere that motivates innovation and creativity. We will strive to do what we do in the best, most efficient and most time conserving way.

ISHIRA LABS- PRESENTING A PREMIUM KHADI RANGE

In
Collaboration
With

Khadi is not merely a piece of doth, It is a philosophy, A way of life. A symbol of empowerment & pride of history of a great man's vision of the relevance of roots. A window to India, carrying the smell of the soil. Blending wisdom of the old with the needs of the present. Offering way to return to nature.

Hand spun, Hand woven, Refined, Pure, Elegance nurtured in the lap of the earth. An excellence beyond just mechanical perfection. A gift for today from the treasury of the past. A gift from India.

Thousand of years ago India's greatest sage established Ayurveda, the knowledge of life. They saw all illnesses and all health as part of an interlocking of whole - the mind, body and spirit - that must be treated as one. Each Ayurvedic formula was designed with specific constituents for different healing purposes and cures. For their ingredients they looked to the natural world around them, using herbal extracts used by forest tribes since beginning of our history.

We present a set of – hand, face, hair and body products those have been made in keeping with the principles of Ayurveda.
